The Daily Gazetteer.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11. 1743.

Rome, Jan. 26.

THE Cardinals del Guidice and Pieri are much indiſpoſed. The Phyſicians give us little or no Hopes of the former, and Yeſterday Morning they were under as great Fears for the latter, but they begin now to talk in another Strain. We amuſe ourſelves with gueſſing how the Hats will be diſpoſed of, tho' perhaps the Time of diſtributing may be ſtill at a Diſtance. Clement XI. during the ſix firſt Years of his Pontificate, put off, on various Pretences, the Promotion of Cardinals from Day to Day, on account of the bloody War in which the Catholick Princes were engag'd. There are at preſent too many Hats vacant to ſuſpect ſo long a Prorogation. Yet be that as it will, we do not believe that even theſe Hats are likely to be diſpos'd of till either a Peace be concluded, or we are ſatisfied that it cannot be brought about. M. Viſconti, Auditor of the Rota, will certainly be promoted to the Archbiſhoprick of Milan, and have one of theſe Hats, whenever they are to be had.

Amberg, Feb. 5. We are here entirely block'd up on the Side of Bohemia; our Governor, however, talks of holding out to the laſt. He has, indeed, a very numerous Garriſon; but as the Enemy are making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions, not only to compleat the Blockade, but alſo to bombard this City, it is thought he will be oblig'd by the Inhabitants to ſurrender, eſpecially ſince he can have no reaſonable Hopes of Succour.

Ratiſbon, Feb. 7. The Affairs of the French go on badly in Bavaria. Without they are preſs'd by an indefatigable Enemy, deſtroy'd within by Diſeaſes and Fatigue. Schwartzenfeldt as well as Nabourgh they abandon'd on the ſecond, and the important Poſt of Schwandorff on the third. Six hundred Auſtrian Horſe are actually advanced to Kirn. We are afraid that Amberg muſt as well as Egra, the Governour of which wrote to M. Maillebois that he ſhould be obliged to ſurrender this Day, the Auſtrians having begun to bombard the Town, and the Commanding Officer having threaten'd to give the Garriſon no Quarter. This, we ſince underſtand, was owing to the Governor's ordering the Inhabitants in the Suburbs to quit their Houſes, and burn them. There is an odd Report prevails here, too ſtrange to be credited, and yet which merits ſome Notice, viz. That the 20,000 Recruits, and 4000 Horſe, which are coming from France, are to fill up the Emperor's Army, and remain entirely in his Pay and Service, after which the French Forces will withdraw. It is an old Saying, that deſperate Diſeaſes muſt have deſperate Remedies. If ſo, inſtead of repeating Deſperate, inſert Abſurd, and the Difficulty is at an End.

Franckfort, Feb. 10. The Emperor is much indiſpoſed with the Gout, yet within theſe few Days he has ſent his Letters Requiſitorial for facilitating the March of 20,000 French Recruits, and 4000 Horſe for recruiting the Cavalry, into Bavaria. Several Princes of the Empire having demanded the Inveſtiture of their Fiefs from his Imperial Majeſty, he has on that Account been obliged to defer his Journey to Munich.

Dreſden, Feb. 11. Our Commiſſaries have ſettled the Quarters of the Hanoverian Troops in our Dominions. A Rumour runs, that two conſiderable Bodies of Heſſians and Saxons are ſpeedily to join them here. We are very far from being troubled at their Arrival. They obſerve very exact Diſcipline, and pay for every Thing in ready Money. Our Elector is exceedingly pleaſed with the Reception he met with at Franckfort. The Elector of Cologne is returned from thence to Bonne, very well ſatisfied with the Succeſs of his Journey. An Expreſs from Egra, in his Way to France, informs, that the Governor having detach'd 200 Men, to ſurprize a Party guarded by 25 Huſſars, the latter cut their Way through them, and left about 20 dead upon the Spot. It is ſaid the Governor has capitulated, but this as yet is uncertain.

Vienna, Feb. 13. It is certain, that our Miniſtry is far from being ſettled, and a great Party is formed for Peace. Some imagine that Cardinal Tencin is of that Way inclined, while others believe that tho' he ſeems ſtrongly to countenance this Meaſure, yet he privately encourages the King to continue the War. It is certain that we have lately received ſome unexpected Advices from Pruſſia, which, it is ſaid, will have a great Effect on our Affairs; and ſome go ſo far as to inſinuate, that the Army will be immediately recalled out of Bavaria; but there will be no great Hardſhip, ſince in two Months there have died there 12,000 Men. We are to have an Army of 50,000 on the Moſelle, and a like Army in Flanders.

Hague, Feb. 13. The States of this Province are ſeparated to the 26th. Prince William of Birckenfeldt took the Oath of Fidelity in the Aſſembly of the States-General this Morning as General of Horſe. All the Foreign Miniſters have conferred lately with our Regency, particularly the Marquis de Chavannes, Miniſter from the King of Sardinia; who, in the Name of his Maſter, has given the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that he will never deſert his Engagements. Count Podewills has received the Character of Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from his Pruſſian Majeſty. Our laſt Advices from Brabant ſay, that on the 9th Inſt. the Hanoverian Troops paſſed the Meuſe at Ruremonde, in order to take Quarters in the Country of Juliers.

Petersbourg, Jan. 25, 1743. Frederica in Georgia, Nov. 24. Mr. James Francis, Lieutenant of a Troop of Rangers, is come to this Place, and brings an Account, that on his Arrival at Mount-Venture, which lies on the Path to the Creek Nation, to his great Grief and Surprize, he found the Bodies of his Wife and Child, and of ſeveral Rangers, barbarouſly murder'd by the Spaniſh Indians. He purſu'd them, and met with Notoway, a Settlement Indian, who gave him the following Account: That a Party of Spaniſh Indians attack'd the Rangers at Mount-Venture, and after ſome Hours Engagement, the Indians perſuaded the Rangers to treat, and pretended to be Cuſſitaws, who are in Friendſhip with us. The Rangers fearing there might be ſome Miſtake, agreed, and ſhook Hands with them. They afterwards ſat down together, and the Indians, in cold Blood, kill'd Mr. Francis's Wife and Child, and all the Rangers except two. This Indian Notoway (whom they were carrying Priſoner to St. Auguſtine, but made his Eſcape from them) ſaid, that he found them to be Yamaſee Indians, and only pretended to be Cuſſitaws, to deceive our People. After he was Priſoner, the Yamaſees told him, that the Governor of St. Auguſtine would be very kind to him, and that the Spaniards intended to invade Georgia a ſecond Time; and though they had a great many kill'd in the laſt Attack upon Frederica, yet Veſſels frequently arriv'd at St. Auguſtine with Men, and they were to be aſſiſted by the French. The Spaniards had brought 1500 Shackles to fix on the Engliſh; as alſo ſome Thouſand of printed Bulls from the Pope, wherein they have Abſolution given them to murder Hereticks, even to the ſeventh Generation.

THE Elements of ALGEBRA, in a New and Easy Method; with their Use and Application, in the Solution of a great Variety of Arithmetical and Geometrical Questions, by General and Universal Rules.

To which is prefix'd, An Introduction containing a succinct History of this Science.

By Mr. NATHANIEL HAMMOND, of the Bank.

Extract from the Account of this Book in the Works of the Learned.

'The World has long complained of the Want of a proper Introduction to Algebra. Some are so very concise, as if they were contrived not to teach but introduce a Teacher; others again are larger, but wrote with so little Condescention to the Understandings of such as are altogether unacquainted with the Science, that they are of very little Use to those who are most inclined to make use of them. Whence it comes to pass, that few find it practicable to make any Progress in Algebra without a Master, tho' certainly the Science in itself is far from surpassing a clear Head, and a tolerable Understanding.

'The Design of this Treatise, which is of a reasonable Bulk, and which contains nothing which is not solid, and to the Purpose, is to assist such as are engaged in teaching Algebra with a regular Method, and a large Stock of Examples; so that their Scholars may find Employment in their Absence; and to enable such as live in Country-Places, and must consequently want all other Tutors, except Books, to acquire such a Skill in this Science, as may enable them to spend a Portion of their Time agreeably in the Cultivation of their better Parts, and in rendering a natural Method of enquiring after Truth habitual.

'The Treatise begins with a copious Explication of the Fundamental Principles of the Art, and of the Signs and Method of Notation used therein. The Author then proceeds to the several Rules, explaining them carefully and copiously in all their various Cases; so that with a moderate Attention it is simply impossible for a Person, who desires to be Master of Algebra, to miss of his End.

'We never find this Writer advancing any thing out of its proper Place, or burthening the Mind of his Scholar with Rules, before they become necessary: He professes to have imitated the judicious Euclid in this Respect; and he has done it with equal Art and Felicity. By this means he has delivered the young Student in Algebra from that which is usually the most fatiguing Part of the Science, viz. The Doctrine of Surds, in the Manner in which it is usually taught. By the same Means he leads his Reader directly to Equations; and, by shewing him the Profit he will reap from this Science, encourages him to overcome all its Difficulties. But having thus laid a strong and rational Foundation, he moves more slowly through the rest of his Work, that whoever follows him, may be obliged to become Master of ever Branch of the Art, so as to be a compleat Algebraist, before he quits his Book, and not a Smatterer.

'Quadratic Equations, and the Art of managing Converging Series, the admirable Invention of the incomparable Newton, are here so clearly explained, and their several Cases so plainly set down, and so thoroughly explicated, that it may be truly said, there are no where else such Instructions to be met with. At the Close of the Book, we find abundance of Observations, necessary for enlightening such Minds as are willing to proceed still farther in analytic Discoveries; so that considering the Compass of this Work, and that too is very moderate, it is as complete as possibly can be expected: And he who is thoroughly versed in it, will find no great Difficulties, when he proceeds to sublimer Studies. The Language is plain and natural, the Book is more copious than any other in Examples, and the Illustrations of them are so full and clear, that it is impossible to mistake their Meaning.'

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant VIRUS, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relics on one Hand, or a feminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are so overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as long to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have found their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it intirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind, for it admits no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on the Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAPER's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who have ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Secret.
